81st Training Wing

"Rebuild the Base…Renew the Community…Reload the Air Force

.

U.S. AIR FORCE

Hurricane Evacuation Entitlements

Melinda Clark

81 CPTS/FMFS

Integrity - Service - Excellence

Regulatory Guidance

- Military members and their dependents are authorized entitlements under JFTR Vol I, Chapter 6
- Civilian employees and their dependents are authorized entitlements under JTR Vol II, Chapter 6

Limited Evacuation Per Diem Rates

- Military Members = 100% M&IE rate
- Military Dependents 12 and older = 100% M&IE rate
- Military Dependents under 12 = 50% M&IE rate
- Civilian Employees = 100% M&IE rate
- Civilian Dependents 12 and older = 100% M&IE rate
- Civilian Dependents under 12 = 50% M&IE rate

 All dependents receive 100 and 50% respectively for the first 30 days, rate is reduced after 30 days to 60% of M&IE rate for dependents 12 and older and 30% of M&IE rate for dependents under 12

Limited Evacuation

- Travel Advances (if mbr has no GTC)
  - Member/Employee without dependents $250
  - Member/Employee with dependents $500

- Active duty military are authorized a local transportation allowance of $25 per day if dependents do not have a vehicle at their Safe Haven. Reimbursement must be requested on travel settlement voucher.

Limited Evacuation Special Circumstances

- IAW JFTR par U2100, reimbursement for travel is not authorized when travel is performed before receipt of written or verbal orders. Similar provision is in and JTR par C3051.
  - Travel must begin on the date ordered by the Installation Commander.
- Travel beyond authorized points in evacuation order limits reimbursement to the Standard CONUS per diem rate. Mileage reimbursement is limited to the authorized distance in the evacuation order only.

Limited Evacuation Special Circumstances

Allowances for escort of dependents incapable of traveling alone: the member, a DoD civilian employee, or another person is entitled to travel and transportation allowances, in accordance with TDY rules, to escort dependents incapable of traveling alone to a safe haven.

Entitlements

- Members ordered to evacuate non-government quarters may occupy government quarters for excess of 30 days without forfeiting BAH.
- Members must report to the Housing Office upon moving in or out of Military Family Housing to prevent BAH overpayments.
- Family Separation Allowance (FSA) is authorized if separation by order is more than 31 consecutive days. Claimed with travel voucher on DD1561.

81st Training Wing

"Rebuild the Base…Renew the Community…Reload the Air Force

QUESTIONS?